

Secession cockade

Share it now!

Secession cockade

In 1861, many citizens of North Carolina wore cockades to show their support for secession from the Union. A cockade is a knot of ribbons usually worn on a hat. This cockade, circa 1861, consists of red ribbon surrounding a brass button.

Usage Statement:

All Rights Reserved

"All rights reserved" is a traditional copyright term that indicates that the copyright holder reserves for his/her/their own use all of the rights given to copyright owners under U.S. copyright law. Items that are included in NCpedia and/or ANCHOR with this rights statement appear by agreement or permission from the rights holder or the institution that holds the item. Click "Available at" to visit the website for the collection where the item appears for more information about the rights or specific uses allowed. For all other non-specified uses, please contact the copyright holder or item owner.

Source URL: <https://www.ncpedia.org/media/secession-cockade>