Perspective Across Disciplines

Mrs. Patterson frequently uses the R.A.F.T. (role, audience, format, topic) strategy to provide students with a choice of perspectives for writing assignments. This R.A.F.T. poster gives an assignment about the Titanic, in which students write from one of the perspectives offered. To complete the assignment, a student must not only write effectively using the assigned format, but also be familiar with the topic and the role she assumes. As a result, this strategy provides a cross-disciplinary way to connect curriculum objectives with real-world perspectives.

Role	Audience	Format	Topic
New York Times Writer	The World	News article	"The 'Unsinkable' Has Happened"
Ruth Becker	The Titanic	Letter	Why did you let us down?
The	Survivors
