

authentic assessment ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

Assessment that seeks to evaluate students' abilities in "real-world" contexts, including the application and demonstration of skills and knowledge to authentic tasks or projects likely to be encountered in adult life.

Additional Information:

Advocates of authentic assessment argue that it reflects mastery and integration of knowledge relevant to real-world experiences, moving students beyond passive test-taking.

Source URL: <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/authentic-assessment>

Links

[1] <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/authentic-assessment> [2] <https://www.ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>