

cathedral ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

A church that contains the seat of a bishop. The power of the colonial church was strong in early Mexico. Many beautiful baroque churches, convents, and monastery buildings survive from the era. In many cases they were built over the earlier temples in the plaza of a town.

Source URL: <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/cathedral>

Links

[1] <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/cathedral> [2] <https://www.ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>