

Cuisenaire rods ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

Rectangular rods of different sizes (from 1 to 10 centimeters) with corresponding colors (for example, the 1 cm rod is white, the 2 cm rod is red), used in mathematics instruction.

Additional Information:

Lesson plans ^[3] for introducing students to Cuisenaire rods are available through Math Portal ^[4].

Source URL: <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/cuisenaire-rods>

Links

[1] <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/cuisenaire-rods> [2] <https://www.ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun> [3]

<http://fcit.usf.edu/math/resource/manips/CuisRods.htm> [4] <http://www.mathportal.org/>