

dynamic equilibrium ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

a condition in which all acting influences are canceled by others, resulting in a stable, balanced, or unchanging system; a stable balance.

Source URL: <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/dynamic-equilibrium>

Links

[1] <https://www.ncpedia.org/glossary/dynamic-equilibrium> [2] <https://www.ncpedia.org/category/parts-speech/noun>