

WebQuest ^[1]

Type of Speech:

noun ^[2]

Definition:

A classroom inquiry activity in which most information is drawn from the World Wide Web. Well-designed WebQuests focus learners' time on using information rather than looking for it and support learners' thinking at the higher levels of analysis, synthesis, and evaluation.

Additional Information:

WebQuests were first developed in 1995 by Bernie Dodge at San Diego State University. In Some Thoughts about WebQuests ^[3], Dodge outlines the critical features of the activity.
