Paul, Alice (1950)

Alice Paul (1885-1977)
Feminist, Suffragist, and Political Strategist

"I never doubted that equal rights was the right direction.
Most reforms, most problems, are complicated.
But to me, there is nothing complicated about ordinary equality."

– Alice Paul, Interview, 1972

To learn more about the life and contributions of Alice Paul, visit "Who Was Alice Paul?" (Alice Paul Institute)

Photograph: Alice Paul (far left, sitting) with other members of the National Women's Party in 1950. Photo courtesy of the Alice Paul Institute, Photo Gallery, http://www.alicepaul.org/who-was-alice-paul/gallery2/.

Citation (Chicago Style):

[Alice Paul (far left, sitting) with other members of the National Women's Party in 1950.] Alice Paul Institute: Photo Gallery. http://www.alicepaul.org/who-was-alice-paul/gallery2/ (Accessed August 8, 2018).

Available at:

http://www.alicepaul.org/who-was-alice-paul/gallery2/

Read the related article:	The Women's Movement
Usage Statement:

Rights Status Unknown